Subscriptions: One year, $3; one month, 25 cts; single copy, 1 cent.
Members of the Publishers' Press.—The latest telegraphic news from all parts of the world are received by the Daily Times up to the hour of going to press.
Frank E. Langley, Publisher.
Published Every Weekday Afternoon.
Entered at the postoffice at Barre as second class matter.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1903.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

2,704

Are You In It?

The Daily Times carries considerably more advertising than any other daily in Washington county. It gets higher rates for it, too, because the Times has the largest circulation. Is your advertisement in the Times? The Times originates, the others follow, excepting only when it comes to telling circulation daily to all. The Times circulation books, press room and all else open to your inspection.

When you are making your guess on the next Pope bear in mind that not for nearly 400 years has any but an Italian ascended to the head of the Catholic church.

For "extraordinary repairs and refurbishing" the White House at Washington a bill of $470,981 has been turned in. A good deal like sewing a shirt to a button, instead of a button to a shirt.

An echo of prohibition: A Maine man sentenced to six months with $200 fine for a single sale of liquor, and the sentence increased to one year in default of payment of the fine. Vengeance wreaked on one man for the offences of countless others still uncaught.

One after another the New England states are taking turns at Old Home Week. Massachusetts has just completed a very successful observance. The celebrations in the various cities and towns have been well attended and the crowds have appeared to thoroughly enjoy the occasion. Which is all that could be hoped for any celebration.

"Anything that isn't nailed down" was the motto of the Hawaiian legislators as they left the legislative halls at the close of the recent session, with bundles of inkstands, mulligan bottles, stationery and other articles under their arms. The articles appropriated were intended to be used only during the session and then left for future sessions, but the Hawaiian lawmakers did not so construe it. Had not the desks been nailed to the floor they too, would probably have been appropriated, and that without the appropriation resolution introduced by one avaricious member two years ago. They left a few waste paper baskets, with which the Hawaiian Territory may begin its next session. Those, it is said, will be carefully preserved for future use. Yet the characteristics which the Hawaiian displayed were not essentially different, from those of the remainder of human nature. To many what is common or government property, is the legitimate prey kindly provided to be taken at one's leisure.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

There have been 94 cases of measles in Bristol this season.

A test of the carbon fuel invented and patented by Henry R. Dorr of Rutland was made Saturday by Mayor Temple, Wayne Bailey, president of the Rutland Savings bank, and Gen. W. V. W. Ripley. The report made by them was made public Wednesday and it shows that the fuel burned eight hours and forty minutes. In the same stove an equal amount of anthracite coal by measure lasted four hours and 50 minutes. This shows a decided superiority of the Dorr fuel made from anthracite coal waste, over coal in its native state.

A peculiar accident happened last Sunday to the Rev. Father Doherty and his brother of St. Albans, when they were driving back from Fairfax, where Father Doherty had been to hold church services. The gentlemen were smoking and a finished cigar was thrown away. Instead of landing in the road it stopped on the carriage top, which was dropped down and the first thing the occupants of the buggy knew the outfit was afire and blazing furiously. The horse was quickly stopped and un hitched and after hard work the flames were extinguished with blankets, etc., but not until the top had been burned off, the seat destroyed and the buggy badly burned generally.

Nelson Valyou of Essex Junction left his home two weeks ago today and his whereabouts are unknown to his family. The exact cause of his disappearance is unknown, but was probably due to a slight family disagreement. That forenoon he worked at the farm of E. M. and J. H. Whitcomb, but went home to his dinner and after that changed his clothes and took his pension check and told his daughter that he guessed he would go up street seeing that it was rainy. All that has been heard of him since is that while

TOP TO TOE OUTFITTERS.

Quinten Building, Barre, Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fielder while getting off from a boat at Burlington that night saw him at the dock.

Charles Sawyer, of Woodford, while digging out gravel with which to repair the highway in the town of Woodford, came across quite a find Saturday afternoon. Five feet below the surface, under a large rock where he was procuring gravel, he shoveled out a watch. It was of gold cases, with a white face, gold hands, and a key hole in the center of the back case. Nothing was broken about it except the crystal. The hands showed that it stopped at three minutes past three. The watch was of Swiss make and old-fashioned in every particular. Attached to it was an old fashioned steel chain, with two keys, one apparently used for winding it, the other for turning the hands. These were badly rusted.

Invictus.

(Most famous poem written by the late William Ernest Henley, the well known English poet.)

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods there be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud;
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds and shall find me unafraid.

It matters not how straight the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the captain of my fate,
I am the master of my soul.
